

Water Quality Classifications Map Legend

---- 1 Mile Buffer Limit

----- Town Boundary

Roads

— Limited Access Highway

— Other Numbered Route

— Local Road

Surface Water Quality Classifications

Line Features

— AA

— A

— B

— B, C, D to A

— C, D to B

Polygon Features

● AA

● A

● B

● B, C, D to A

● C, D to B

Groundwater Quality Classifications

● GAA, GAAs

● GA

● To GA, GAA

● GB

NOTE: Water quality classification data shown on this map do not extend into the geographical areas covered by the State of Rhode Island.

0 0.5 1 2 Miles

0 2,500 5,000 10,000 Feet

Scale 1:24000 1 inch = 2000 feet

Prepared by the Green Valley Institute, January 2007

This map and data represent the best available information as of the date of publication. The Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) is not responsible for any errors or omissions. The DEP is not responsible for any damages or losses resulting from the use of this map. The DEP is not responsible for any damages or losses resulting from the use of this map. The DEP is not responsible for any damages or losses resulting from the use of this map.

Definitions of water quality classifications shown on this map can be found on the website of the Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection at <http://dep.state.ct.us/water/waterquality.htm>

Features shown on this map may extend up to one mile outside of the town boundary shown on this map. Some features shown on this map may be clipped and not fully represented.

This map is intended for planning purposes only, and contains no authoritative positional information.

